

MARINE BIOLOGY

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
July 23 New England Aquarium/IMAX Boston, MA Learn about and visit seals and more! We'll see an IMAX film and get back to camp for a swim.	July 24 Beavertail State Park Jamestown, RI Visit an incredible cove on Narragansett Bay. Expect to see pipefish among the eelgrass and lots of anemones.	July 25 Whale Watch Boston, MA Stellwagen Bank National Marine Sanctuary provides the summertime feeding grounds for migratory whales.	July 26 Hopkinton State Park Hopkinton, MA Freshwater Canoe and Kayak day! Come paddle and discover with us.	July 27 Nahant Beach Reservation Nahant, MA Soft sand, clean blue water, and beautiful views for a fun swim and shore trip!
July 30 Odiorne State Park Rye, NH Explore the tidepools to make discoveries of our own.	July 31 Salem Sound and Cat Cove Laboratory Salem, MA Tour Salem State University's aquaculture lab and explore the marine life in the cove and research pond.	Aug 1 National Marine Life Center Bourne, MA Learn about sea turtle rescue and rehabilitation where it happens.	Aug 2 George's Island Boston Ma, Travel by ferry to the island for a day of explorations	Aug 3 Nantasket Beach, Hull, Ma The beach world will be our oyster as we explore and discover

*trips may change due to tides and weather.