

MARINE BIOLOGY

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
July 10 New England Aquarium Boston, MA Learn about and visit seals and more! We'll see an imax film and get back to camp for a swim.	July 11 Halibut State Park Rockport, ME Explore the tidepools and maybe even spot a baby harbor seal!	July 12 Nantasket Beach Hull, MA Explore the rocky beaches and freshwater marshes of this beach and boardwalk.	July 13 Monomoy Island Seal Tour Chatham, MA The booming seal population draws hungry sharks. *We will return to campus late for this trip. Details will be emailed during the summer.	July 14 Nahant Beach Reservation Nahant, MA Soft sand, clean blue water, and beautiful views for a fun swim and shore trip!
July 17 Odiorne State Park Rye, NH Explore the tidepools to make discoveries of our own.	July 18 Salem Sound and Cat Cove Laboratory Salem, MA Tour Salem State University's aquaculture lab and explore the marinelife in the cove and research pond.	July 19 National Marine Life Center Bourne, MA Learn about sea turtle rescue and rehabilitation where it happens.	July 20 Beavertail State Park Jamestown, RI Visit an incredible cove on Narragansett Bay. Expect to see pipefish among the eelgrass and lots of anemones.	July 21 Whale Watch Boston, MA Stellwagen Bank National Marine Sanctuary provides the summertime feeding grounds for migratory whales.